

Jennifer has been on the figure skating staff at Palm Beach Skate Zone since the day the rink added and opened the ice rink in 2002. As a coach, she specializes in Freestyle, Moves in the Field and Choreography. Jennifer grew up and trained in Los Angeles, CA under high level Olympic coaches such as Frank Carroll, John Nicks, Robin Cousins and Doug and Lauri Varvais. She was a two-time US National competitor and holds a gold medal in freestyle and a silver medal in figures. She retired from amateur skating at the age of 19 and toured professionally with Ice Capades, Holiday on Ice and Royal Caribbean Cruise Ships. Jennifer is married to fellow coach Jason Kane and has two sons, Jesse 16 and Aiden 14. She is also the Vice President, Membership Chair and Assistant Test Chair of the Palm Beach Figure Skating Club and volunteers her time with the club. Jennifer loves to take advantage of opportunities to serve and help out with the club and the Skate Zone in any way she can. She is grateful to be a part of such a motivated club, an enthusiastic facility and a great group of coaches that encourage and support one another daily.
