

Laurilee Ann Gudiño

USFS/PSA Certified and ISI Gold Judge

Freestyle / Choreography / MIF

Coaching and teaching since 1988. Laurilee has taken skaters to major competitions including Regionals.

Choreographs skating programs for all levels of skaters including amateur and professional skaters from all over the world.

Laurilee born in Buffalo, New York is an international star principal ice skater with Holiday On Ice World Tour and has performed for audiences in Europe, South America, and the Far East.

Skating along with Olympic and World champions as Robin Cousins, Denise Biellmann, Norbert Schramm and many others.

Her repertoire includes: the Adagio pair in the Traviata, Bolero, Mazel-tov & Alice- Flamenco; three years as Princess Aurora in Sleeping Beauty, which combine her theatrical training with her skating talents, making it her favorite role. Laurilee's unique style of skating, combining dramatic dance with the athletics of ice skating, has always captured the hearts of audiences. Also Laurilee has competed Internationally at the American Open Professional Championships.

For the last 23 years she produces ice shows in the USA, Europe, Asia, Central & South America with her own company Rosstyn Ice Shows & Rink Designs, Inc. which has been awarded in 2010 the best sport show by the IAAPA International Association of Amusement Parks & Attractions

www.rosstyniceshows.com

Laurilee has taken ice skating productions to major Theme Parks, Hotels, Casinos, State Fairs Theaters tours, Television specials, stunt doubles, radio, news and television interviews.

With all her abilities she also has the talent to create and design her own costumes for her ice show productions, competitive skaters, and many famous professional skaters.

You can reach Laurilee Gudino directly at 561-436-0142 to book private lessons for beginners to competitive skaters.

